Row By Row CONTEST!!

Have you heard what the theme of this year's row by row is? It's "Home Sweet Home" and we have decided to put on a contest for our customers. You come up with a design completely drawn out on paper measuring out to 9" X 36" you do not need to sew anything together or pick out the colors we will take care of that part. The winner will have their name on the pattern we create along with your name on our website! The prize will be announced soon. The deadline for this contest is February 15 2016. Stop by to see the complete rules for entering,

Do you own a Bernina? Have you forgot how to use certain features of your machine? You may join our Bernina Mastery class were Casey will teach you your machine and all the great things it can do. Our classes are every month on Fridays and Saturday's about 4-6 times a month. You may pay for a whole year or half a year. When you sign up that will start your whole or half year. Call or stop by for more information

Reminder- You must sign up to reserve your spot. This month classes are four times a month. I already sent out an e-mail regarding class

Clubs NEW!!!!

We have started a table runner club and a "Sew"cial club! Stop by or check out our website for more information.

Closeouts

New closeouts on fabrics and notions have been added to our clearance section in store. Check out the new lowered prices in the clearance area as well. Hurry in before there gone because once their gone then that's it!

Dropping your Quilt off

Here are some simple tips that help us when quilting your quilt.

1. Iron and press your quilt top
2. Square up your quilt back
3. Sew ¼" around the quilt top
4. Do not pin or spray together
-If you are in a rush for your quilt we can get it done, but there's a rush fee.

Bernina Long Arm Rental

We have our calendar and sign ups out and ready. Come in to put your name down for the rental class. Check out our websites for the updated calendar for the classes.
