Did you know we rent out our longarm? Yep we do! Before you can rent our Bernina longarm you must take the rental class. The rental class is on Tuesdays from 9am-1:30pm. We are working on trying to do a couple Saturday classes. Let us know if you are interested in a weekend class or afternoon class. We can try to work that into everything.

During the rental class you will learn how to use the Bernina Q24. The class fee is $100 and you will receive the training panel, batting and backing. After the class is over you will be able to take your panel with you.

How do you rent the longarm? Once you have completed the rental class you are welcome to schedule a day to come in and rent the machine.
